

Assabet Valley Chambersingers Presents “Sing Into Spring: A Choral Perspective”

Whitinsville, MA – The Assabet Valley Chambersingers proudly presents Sing Into Spring: A Choral Perspective, a captivating choral concert to be held on Saturday, April 5, 2025, at 3:00 PM at the United Presbyterian Church, 51 Cottage St., Whitinsville, MA. Admission for this uplifting and diverse program is $10 per person at the door. Parking is available in the Unibank parking lot located directly across the street from the church.

Under the artistic direction of Robert Eaton, the program will feature an eclectic selection of choral works designed to entertain, inspire, provoke reflection, and provide joy and inspiration. Highlights include:

- Renaissance madrigals that explore the lighter side of romance
- Traditional American folk songs arranged by Aaron Copland
- Musical settings of poetry by James Agee, Rudyard Kipling, and Mother Teresa
- Vocal jazz selections
- Timely and thought-provoking songs by Lennon & McCartney and Bob Dylan

This carefully curated program will take audiences on a journey through time and emotion, blending historical and contemporary themes that resonate with today’s world.

The Assabet Valley Chambersingers is a 20-voice ensemble drawn from the Assabet Valley Mastersingers. Founded in 1988 as a civic outreach initiative, the Chambersingers have delighted audiences throughout the greater Worcester area, performing at cultural events, libraries, assisted living facilities, and other popular venues.

The Assabet Valley Mastersingers has been a cornerstone of the Central Massachusetts music scene since its founding in 1978, presenting masterful choral-orchestral works with professional orchestras and soloists. The ensemble is known for its innovative programming, including world premieres, contemporary compositions, and fresh interpretations of classical masterpieces.
